

Welcome to DownPlayer's Tutorial

Download files: download videos and musics on the internet or on YouTube

Create Folder: create a new folders to organize your videos and musics

Connect: connect your iPhone/iPad to your computer as a wifi hard drive or internet server

Protect/unprotect the app with a passcode: define a passcode to protect your data

Editing mode

Move the selected files after you have defined the file destination

Delete the selected files

Copy the selected files after you have defined a file destination

Rename the selected files after you have defined new file names

When you connect your device to another device, you shall keep the Internet Server/Wifi HardDrive page displayed for the connection to be active; if you close the Internet Server/Wifi HardDrive page, the connection will be terminated.

If you have questions, issues or suggestions about the app, just send us an email by tapping the i button.